

Antioch man hit by car on East Division

Tuesday, September 17, 2013

An Antioch man was killed after being struck by a car on East Division Street Wednesday morning, Sept. 11.

According to a preliminary report by the Tennessee Highway Patrol, James W. Buchanan was walking along East Division Street just before 6 a.m. when he was struck by a car driven by Iris J. Shelton, 62. According to the report, Shelton did not see Buchanan because of darkness and fog. No citations or criminal charges were issued.

The car Buchanan was in with his brother Jeremy Buchanan had broken down, and the men were walking along the roadway. Jeremy Buchanan had no injuries.
