

Kenny Howell

Managing Editor

Christmas Through the Decades will be on show at the annual Mt. Juliet Christmas Parade Saturday.

The parade will start at the First Baptist Church of Mt. Juliet at 5:30 p.m. and travel to Charlie Daniels Parkway. Fire Chief Erron Kinney will be the Grand Marshall of the parade.

North Mt. Juliet Road will be closed from NW Rutland Road to Sunset Drive for the parade. Also expect traffic in the staging area at the First Baptist Church of Mt. Juliet between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. Also expect pedestrian and vehicle traffic after the parade, which is expected to wrap up at 8 p.m.

It will be a cold evening for the parade as temperatures are expected to be in the mid 30s.