The Mt. Juliet girls capped off their 2013-14 season by reaching the state semifinals.

The Lady Bears beat Jefferson County in the first round, 65-37 before falling to eventual state champion Blackman, 55-46.

In the opening game, Mt. Juliet dominated from start to finish. Jefferson County had a severe height disadvantage, and the Lady Bears exploited it. Only one bucket came from outside the paint in the first half, as Mt. Juliet led 36-8 at the break.

Mt. Juliet shot 71 percent from the field and had a 30 to eight rebound advantage in the game.

Sally McCabe led the way with 20 points, and Ronjanae DeGray finished with 18.

Friday, the Lady Bears ended the season to the No. 1 team in the nation, Blackman.

The Lady Blaze have two of the top recruits in the nation in former Lady Bear MeMe Jackson and sophomore point guard Crystal Dangerfield.

The Lady Bears fell behind early, 13-8 after one, but came roaring back in the second. The run was sparked by Tyia Waller off the bench who got two steals from Jackson on back-to-back possessions, and Ronjanae DeGray gave the Lady Bears the lead late in the half. It was 20-19 Mt. Juliet at the break.

Blackman controlled the second half, outscoring the Lady Bears 16-8 in the third, and holding the lead in the fourth.

Ronjanae DeGray scored 18 points, and Rae DeGray finished with 13.

Blackman went on to win the AAA State Championship easily over Ridgeway, 65-44.
