

Paul Foster passed away May 7, at age 72.

Foster may have been best known as the owner/operator of Gallatin's Tastee Freez, a popular fast food hangout that any teenager from the 70s will certainly recall with fond memories. The Tastee Freez was also responsible for making pizza, a popular treat in the local area. Later in life, he transitioned into the construction business where he enjoyed working alongside his sons, Terry and Tommy.

The Memorial Service, conducted by Brother Gordon Lee, is 2 pm. Friday, May 11, 2012. Visitation is on Friday from 11 a.m. until the service.

Survivors include: wife, Margaret Foster; sons, Dennis Alan (Beverly Lynne) Foster and Thomas William (Marjorie) Foster; siblings, Lloyd (Helen) Foster, John (Carol) Foster, Kenneth Foster, Mary (Wayne) Oliver, Naomi (George) Johnson, and Martha (Chuck) Gregory; grandchildren, Adrienne Lea Fisher, Jessica Lindsey Foster, Marshall Douglas Foster, Alyssa Danon Foster, Joshua Daniel Foster, Kellye Lynne Foster, Samuel Ryan Foster, and Jonathan Paul Foster; and great-grandchildren, Kyle, Aaron, Lyla, Lilliana, Ivy, and Kendra. He is preceded in death by son Terence Dean Foster, parents William and Lucy Foster, brothers David and James Foster, and sister Zeldia Sanders.
