The City of Mt. Juliet Planning Commission approved a site plan for Providence Wine & Spirits, which should be the second liquor store to open in Mt. Juliet.

The store will be located on Providence West Boulevard behind Regions Bank. The building will be 12,206 square feet, and will include the liquor store, retail space and a cafe.

In other business, the planning commission approved a conceptual plan for Hickory West Subdivision. The new subdivision will be on the west side of Hickory Hills, and will contain 97 lots.

A site plan for a distribution center for Hollister, a medical supply company, was also approved. The site will be located on Eastgate Boulevard, and will be 300,660 square feet.
