

Edwin Bradley HurdTuesday, November 19, 2013

---

Edwin Bradley Hurd, 63, Mt. Juliet, died Thursday, Nov. 14.

Hurd was a member of Hermitage Hills Baptist Church. He was formerly employed by First Tennessee Bank in Memphis and Envoy Corporation in communications in Nashville. Hurd was presently employed as a seafood specialist at the Lebanon Road, Mt. Juliet Publix. He was the son of the late, Edwin Harrison and India Elizabeth White Hurd.

He is survived by: wife of 31 Years, Pamela Hurd; twin daughters, Kari Hurd and Shari (Paul) Hedges; sisters, Pamela Cubinski and Gigi Phillips. He was the PawPaw of Dylan and Corey Hedges

Funeral services were Sunday, Nov. 17, at Bond Memorial Chapel with Bro. Jerry Williams officiating. Interment followed at Mt. Juliet Memorial Gardens. Family and friends served as pallbearers.

Flowers accepted or memorials may be made to United Way of Wilson County or the American Cancer Society for Pancreatic Research.

Visitation will be 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. Sunday at Bond Memorial Chapel, N. Mt. Juliet Road and Weston Drive, Mt. Juliet, TN. (615)773-2663. Obit Line (615)641-2663, www.bondmemorial.com.