New Board of Commissioners hold first meeting

By John Kirian
Managing Editor

Monday night the newly elected Board of Commissioners were individually sworn in by City Judge Carolyn Christoffersen in front of family and friends.

Commissioner Ray Justice was elected as Vice-Mayor. Commissioner Scott Hefner will be the BoC representative on the Planning Commission and Commissioner Jennifer Milele will be the BoC representative on BPAC.

Mayor James Maness appointed David Rast to fill the Mayor’s seat on the Planning Commission.

The resolution was approved to authorize the City Manager to sign the agreement between Grace United Methodist Church and the City for city parkland.

The new Board of Commissioners dealt with their first piece of city legislation since being sworn in at Monday Night’s meeting. The resolution-turned-ordinance in question proposed to alter the funding of Mt. Juliet’s emergency services beginning next fiscal year.

According to newly-elected Mayor James Maness, the purpose of this legislation is to ensure that city emergency services have adequate funding, and to not leave the city in a situation such as what happened last year, in which property taxes were not adequate to cover the Mt. Juliet Fire Department’s expenses. In such a situation, the Board of Commissioners’ options were to attempt to amend the budgeting in the middle of the fiscal year, implement a new impact fee (which wouldn’t be collectable immediately), or raise property taxes, none of which they felt were an ideal solution.

Last year, the city had a budget surplus of $3.6 million in the general fund. However, none of this money could be used to close the $500,000 deficit in the city’s emergency service fund. The legislation proposed would fund the city’s emergency services directly from the general fund. However, none of this money could be used to close the $500,000 deficit in the city’s emergency service fund. Kitchen Tune-Up opens in Mt. Juliet

Staff Reports

MT. JULIET – Kitchen Tune-Up, a national kitchen remodeling company known for five service options to update kitchens and cabinetry, has arrived in Mt. Juliet. Meeting the growing demand from homeowners seeking to update and upgrade the look of their kitchens, Kitchen Tune-Up of Mt. Juliet is serving homeowners throughout Donelson, Hermitage, Madison, Old Hickory, Mount Juliet, Lebanon and surrounding areas.

Local resident Elliott Katz has launched Kitchen Tune-Up’s operations along with the support of the company’s home office located in Aberdeen, South Dakota. The award-winning company has established itself as the industry leader with over 32 years of success behind it.

“Homeowners in the Nashville-Mount Juliet area can always expect a one-of-a-kind experience with Kitchen Tune-Up,” said Katz. “We are thrilled to pave the way for our customers to feel great in their kitchens, no matter the size of the job. Our goal is to transform the spaces into pure joy for them.”

Katz previously worked with top international brands as a makeup artist. His business and design experience has given him the foundation to launch and grow Kitchen Tune-Up locally.

“Elliott is a fantastic addition to the Kitchen Tune-Up family. We have all the confidence in him to carry on the Kitchen Tune-Up tradition,” said Heidi Morrissey, president of the Kitchen Tune-Up Franchise System.

In addition to residential clients, Kitchen Tune-Up offers kitchen remodeling for commercial customers. Services for both client bases include the company’s famous Tune-Up, a proprietary wood reconditioning process, as well as cabinet rediording, cabinet painting, cabinet refacing, and custom cabinets.

“I am so proud to be part of a company that has built its reputation on trust, top service and amazing results,” added Katz. “You truly cannot put a price tag on the joy that these transformations will create for our customers and their families.”

While most kitchen remodeling services can take weeks, leaving kitchens inaccessible, Kitchen Tune-Up of Mount Juliet can finish its work in as little as one day. Kitchen Tune-Up’s impeccable customer service standards, known as its Trustpoints, ensure a hassle-free experience from start to finish.

Hills and Willoughby Station residents. The developers of Canebrake Subdivision also failed to request sewer availability from the City of Mt. Juliet per the contract between the City and Nashville Metropolitan Government. This was not acceptable to the members of the Planning Commission.

While the purchase of the parkland is ultimately the decision of the Board of Commissioners, the Planning Commission discussed the matter in their monthly meeting in order to give a recommendation to the BOC.

The BOC had discussed purchasing the parkland earlier this month, but that discussion was inconclusive. They held a special work session on Monday, Nov. 16, to further discuss the matter.

District 4 Commissioner Jennifer Miele updated the Planning Commission on the results of the work session. Notably, in the case of the Hayes Property, both parties had agreed to a revision of the original contract.

The contract had originally been for the purchase of 30 acres of land for $1.4 million. The BOC was concerned that approximately 10 acres of that land was unusable due to the presence of easements for power lines and gas lines. The revised contract instead was for the sale of the usable 20 acres of land for a reduced price of $925,000.

After the work session, the BOC had decided to accept that the land had to be used as a park for 30 years, which earlier had been a major concern.

Regardless of the contract revisions, the Planning Commission chose to defer their recommendation for a month. With a new Board of Commissioners taking office on Monday, Nov. 23, and a potentially new Planning Commission being seated in December, the Board wanted to ensure that whatever decision was reached represented the new Board/Commission, and not the old.

City procedures require the Planning Commission to give a recommendation of any land purchases to the Board of Commissioners. Since this was deferred, there can be no action forward with this property until the planning commission acts.
The wise don’t make a show of their knowledge, but fools broadcast their foolishness.

24 Work hard and become a leader; be lazy and become a slave. 25 Worry weighs a person down; an encouraging word cheers a person up. 26 The godly give good advice to their friends; the wicked lead them astray. Proverbs 12:23-26 (NLT2)

Wisdom does not require a front-man. Wisdom needs no PR department. Wisdom reveals itself naturally. Wisdom appears every day as you simply go about life in the transformation that comes with the renewing of your mind (Romans 12:2). As your mind is renewed through the gift of God’s Holy Spirit utilizing His Holy Word, wisdom has no need to demand an audience. The audience gathers as they acknowledge the manner in which you handle each situation in life.

Wisdom open doors as a result of the dedication given to become who you are in God’s calling. Those who follow the Good Shepherd will not only become fishers of men, they will become leaders within the context of their everyday life. The writer of the Book of Hebrews hinted at this in his benediction: “20 Now may the God of peace—who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, and ratified an eternal covenant with his blood—21 may he equip you with all you need for doing his will. May he produce in you, through the power of Jesus Christ, every good thing that is pleasing to him. All glory to him forever and ever!” Hebrews 13:20-21 (NLT2)

Moldex-Metric Inc. donates 50,000 N95 respirators to Wilson County EMA

Staff Reports

Wilson County Mayor Randall Hutto and Moldex-Metric, Inc.’s new Wilson County Plant Manager Bryan Harralson announced that the N95 respirator manufacturer has arranged for a donation of 50,000 N95 Moldex respirators to the Wilson County EMA. The donation is being made by Celanese Corporation to celebrate the transfer of its Wilson County factory to Moldex where millions of N95 respirators will be manufactured starting in January 2021.

The project represents an investment by Moldex of over $25 million and the creation of more than 200 new jobs in Wilson County. Moldex is expanding its N95 respirator capacity to meet the surge in demand due to Covid-19 and future market demand. The company is in the process of retrofitting the former Celanese factory building in Lebanon. Beyond the capacity increase, Moldex is also building an additional distribution center on the 21-acre site.

Wilson County is supporting this new investment by Moldex with tax incentives and the effort is also being supported by the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development.

“Moldex is very pleased to be able to facilitate this donation of urgently needed N95 masks to the Wilson County Emergency Management team for use in protecting first responders in the COVID crisis,” said Mark Magidson, President/CEO of Moldex-Metric, Inc.

“On behalf of Wilson County, it’s an honor to receive this generous donation from Moldex. We are pleased that Moldex has chosen Wilson County as their additional distribution center. The jobs created as a result of Moldex’s investment will contribute, greatly to our local economy,” said Wilson County Mayor Randall Hutto.

Wisdom equips you with everything you need to do the will of God. Walking in God’s will is the work motivated by the knowledge produced in your life by wisdom. In the end there is only an audience of One for you to please. There should be only One applause that you long to hear: “Well done my good and faithful servant.” The godly become an extension of the Word that became flesh and lived among us (John 1:14), sharing His message with all who will hear it. The best advice a friend can give is to encourage another to embrace the Truth that will set them free to live in the blessing of knowing the Creator as their Heavenly Father (John 8:32). There are no more encouraging words to cheer the heart of another than the promise God has made to them through Jesus Christ. There can be no greater hope to lift the spirit of another than the knowledge that their Creator is calling their name, inviting them to join Him in His promise of life everlasting. Life that is renewed, life that is abundant, life that sets them free to enjoy it for all of eternity. Wisdom not only directs the work of your hands, it inspires your heart to share the source of your hope, joy, peace and love. No, wisdom needs no front-man. As you allow the indwelling Spirit within you to fully function as your Counselor and your Guide, God’s wisdom will shine in you like the noon day sun (Psalm 37:5-6).

what is spent elsewhere benefits that community. For example, if you know that you need gasoline, try and plan your gas purchases locally, if you need groceries, buy them locally and so on. The more we spend locally the better off our community will be.

In a nutshell, if you can buy it at home and support our local businesses, then please do so. Current businesses, services and products not currently located in Wilson County are much more likely to locate here if they see that our citizens support and patronize their local businesses. Our community and its businesses depend upon your support and patronage.

In closing, please buy and shop locally. It’s money well spent and will benefit us and our community!
