Community mourns with family of teen killed in fatal car accident

By Parker Minor Managing editor

19-year-old, Lane Dickson, a resident of Wilson County and former graduate of Wilson Central High School in 2015, was killed in a tragic single-car wreck on Sunday night, July 10th.

According to WEMA officials, the accident occurred around 5:30 p.m. at the 1000 block of Beckwith Road, close to Lebanon Road in Mt. Juliet.

Wilson County Highway Patrol officers worked to gather what information was available to the scene of the fatal accident.

Wilson County Emergency Management arrived on the scene con- forming with THP that deaths occurred instantly at the time of the accident.

Evidence shows that Dickson was, in fact, wearing a seatbelt while traveling south when he lost control of the automobile, ending up off of the road in a tree line.

Officials worked the scene of the unfortunate accident for sever- al hours before the road was opened back for tri- ckease.

Thoughts go out to the family and friends for their tragic loss.

Standing waters were a concern to residents and business owners of Mt. Juliet last week as continuous stormy conditions increased the rainfall amount to inches in a very short period of time, causing flash flooding throughout the community.

Strong winds also were a large factor in these continuous storm systems as they ripped through Wilson County.

Many residents and business owners in Mt. Juliet had minor damage from the storms, while others experienced more severe damage, such as damage to homes due to straight-lined winds.

Wilson County Emergency crews rescued the body of 17-year-old, Jaquan Alexander Rodriquez, around 10 a.m. on Thursday, July 12, that went missing after jump- ing off of a bluff and never resurfaced Monday.

Rodriquez was a student of Hunter’s Lane High School in Davidson County.

He was with other, unidentifiable acquaintances at Old Hickory Lake in Wil- son County.

They were cliff jumping after Off of a 30 foot bluff into the lake when the tragic event took place.

Family members of their tragic loss and asks for prayers and priva- cy during this difficult time.

To the Mt. Juliet community and our visitors.

Thank you for your overwhelming support for law enforcement as we put our lives on the line, they put on their uniform, pray for their safety as they do to keep us safe every day.

Our department is overwhelmed by the outpouring of support from everyone, who are showing their support for law enforcement as a response to the awful, heartbreaking tragedy in Dallas. The support has been tremendous, and we continue to encourage the officers who selflessly protect Mt. Juliet every day. We are all very appreciative for the support and many acts of kindness. We are all honored to serve Mt. Juliet and its citizens.

Thank you for your overwhelming support and allowing us to serve you.

Wilson County Board of Education accepts resignation of former WCHS softball coach

The Wilson County Board of Education accepted the resignation of former Wilson Central High School head softball coach and teacher, Michael Shepard. The former coach submitted his resignation last Wednesday, during the Board’s special called meeting in the last hour.

On Thursday, June 30th, the City of Mt. Ju-llet announced that it was approved 1.3 million in grants, by state and federal government, for walkways and greenways.

Dedicated committees members and city officials have worked very hard and were a huge part in furthering the success of these grants approval.

One of these approved grants was the ‘Safe Walk To School’ grant, which was approved at $250k.

Committee members, who were involved here-ly with the ‘Safe Walk To School’ grant, have put in many personal hours.

These members were required to attend an out of town training conference to be certified to even just submit the application for the ‘Safe Route To School’ grant.

Local plumber seeks heart transplant

Local Mt. Juliet plumbers, Earl Cox, of Drip Dry Plumbing, has been hospitalized for several weeks now due to heart complications. Cox is a father to four children and is grudgingly hoping to be added onto the list for a heart transplant. Family and friends of Cox have come together on social media, creating a event on Facebook, inviting locals to attend the benefit they have created and plan to host. The benefit will be held at the James E. Ward Agricultural Center at the Wilson County Fairgrounds in Lebanon on Saturday, July 16th. The event will start at Noon at the Ag Center’s Poultry Barn and will consist of activities for families. A cornhole tournament will be held with a $50 entry fee, following with a live auction. All proceeds generated will go to the Cox family.

The Chop Shop specializes in hair, make-up, fun face painting, and an overall great environment.

As human beings we're all supposed to be good to one another and we can seem short and curt when a large part of it is spent stressing and complaining about the little things. It's impossible to admit the hectic daily stresses of life when one makes some days seem miserably unbearable, and when you put things into perspective, you suddenly realize that there could be much different.

For the first time in all of the terrible tragedies you've read or heard about just imagine the day where those suffering terrible traumas and medical illnesses, those in hospices, nursing homes and Hospice home care. Trust me, they know first hand what real life issues are and deal with them daily. Being stuck in traffic or running out of milk aren't life and death issues, but as human beings we sometimes make bigger deals out of the smallest and most trivial things in life. Most of us go about our lives and then making a big deal out of something small and current ourselves. In a way, it's like being coun- seled or instructed by our- selves without any verbal or written action. It just happens naturally. Fortunately, God made us to live in our lives that teach us lessons without hurting us. They are tools for our tool box of life and death. They are the mental notes and experiences we place in our life experiences and lesson tools for help with future reflection and guidance. As human beings there are some things we do in our lives that we can't accept, personal gain, personal selfishness or just because we have to. But there things we do for others because with no other choice or to bring us ways to bring us to a place where we can be the most fruitful and grateful. Father does know best.

A second thing we always need to remember is that we don't have all the answers. Our goodness, often we don't have most of the an- swers. We do see things in our life that are usually a cloudy mirror and that skewed vision can cause us problems if we do not recognize their reality. It is true that our heav- enly Father does have all the answers in the world. He doesn't see what we can, but we must un- derstand that there are limits, including the limita- tions, are intended to bring us to a place where we can be the most fruitful and grateful. Father does know best.

A second thing we always need to remember is that we don't have all the answers. We can prevent nothing as we are prohibited sentient beings of the Most High God, we must believe that He knows best. Sometimes our actions indicate that we might love God, but we don't think He is very smart—or as R.C. Sproul is quoted to have said, “Most Christians sa- tisfice the sovereignty of God but believe they have the sovereignty of man.” If He made us, then He ought to know how to know what's best for our lives and what is destructive. Sometimes we even view God as a fuddy duddy who just doesn't want to give us any fun. But we must un- derstand that there are limits, including the limita- tions, are intended to bring us to a place where we can be the most fruitful and grateful. Father does know best.

In the late fifties and early sixties, there was a television show starring Robert Young and Jane Wyatt entitled Father Knows Best. It was a show depicting an intact, nuclear family that expressed familial values we all appreciate. I often refer to that title when encouraging us to trust our heavenly Father as He truly knows best.

The Scriptures illum- inate the blessings that are available to us if we can simply trust Him enough to obey Him. Deuteronomy 28:2 states: “... all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, be- cause you obey the voice of the LORD your God.”

“Jesus makes it person- al when He says that our obedience is evidence of our love to Him and that He will send us to work no longer for our master’s commands.”

Mr. Wharton and Dina (Tim) Beretta; siblings, Sandi Beretta, Jr; parents, Michael, age 62 of Mt. Juliet, and Andrew Wharton offici- ated. Following followed at Mt. Juliet Memorial Gar- den. In lieu of flowers, dona- tions may be made to Joe Beretta Foundation, an organization dedicated to meeting practical needs of families dealing with sel- fless, and generous. It will often do us more to help than to be helped. We must be good to one another.

Father Knows Best

It often does not look like God is in charge, but rest assured, He governs His kingdom well. And as we choose to follow and obey Him, it is comforting to know that Father Knows Best.

Wilson County Fair tickets available online

Tickets to the 2016 Wilson County Fair went online Sunday, July 1. Tickets are available, on the website, at www.wilsoncountyfair.net.

The link to purchase tickets online is at the top of the website and in linked “FX,” according to Wilson County Fair Board President, Hale Moss.

“We’re excited to offer online ticket sales,” Moss said. “It’s an additional way to make it easier for families and individuals to get their fair’s tickets for the largest and best fair in Tennessee.”

Presented by: Your Middle Tennessee Ford Dealers, ticket prices for the fair are $8 for adults and $6 for children (ages 6-12), while children 5 and under are admitted free. Season tickets, which are good for all nine days of the Fair, are $33.

The fair will open at 5 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 19, and run through Saturday, Aug. 27, at the James E. Ward Agricultural Center in Lebanon.

“We hope people will take advantage of this quick and easy way to purchase tickets this year,” Moss said, noting that the Fair offers something for everyone.

“We have all of the old favorites returning, such as the concert series Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights, Doodles the Clown, the Demolition Derby, The Great Give-Away and the Mighty Maltby,” he added.

“Because we’re an agricultural-based Fair, there will be the animal competitions and farming and horticultural competitions as well.

“We’re working hard to make the largest fair in the state of Tennessee the best ever, and we hope you’ll join us, because We Want YOU at the 2016 Wilson County Fair.”

For more information about the fair or to purchase tickets online starting July 1, visit www.wilsoncountyfair.net.
